NOW HIRING FOR DEPUTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY

$6,812 - $10,020 per month for DDA I

$8,049 - $12,233 for DDA II

We offer excellent benefits package, including 6% employer-paid PERS retirement contributions; medical, dental, and vision insurance; life insurance; long-term disability coverage; and generous paid leave, including vacation, sick leave, and 10 paid holidays.

Up to $5,000 in relocation assistance is available to help you move to Coos County. Funds may be used for eligible relocation expenses, including a rental security deposit, first month's rent, and Oregon State Bar admission fees required to obtain your Oregon license to practice law.

What You'll Learn in Your First Year as a Prosecutor

- Be in court nearly every day as you gain hands-on experience with arraignments, hearings, plea negotiations, and trials while working alongside experienced prosecutors.
- Prepare for and conduct trials by learning witness preparation, jury selection, trial strategy, and courtroom advocacy.
- Negotiate with seasoned defense attorneys to develop practical skills in negotiation, judgment, and justice.
- Make meaningful decisions by reviewing criminal cases, determining appropriate charges, negotiating resolutions, and trying cases when necessary.
- Respond to major crime scenes—including the opportunity to be called out to advise law enforcement alongside veteran prosecutors during major investigations.
- Launch your career with experience that has led former Coos County prosecutors to become elected District Attorneys, Circuit Court Judges, and attorneys with the Oregon Department of Justice and the U.S. Department of Justice.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Membership in the Oregon State Bar, eligible for reciprocity admission or awaiting bar exam results.
- Must pass a background check including CJIS certification.

Coos County has a population of over 63,000. The county covers 1,629 square miles, ranging from ocean beaches to the coast range of mountains. Hunting and fishing are major past times. Mountain biking, dune riding, and hiking are popular sports. If you are an outdoors type of person, Coos County has something to offer you.
